

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Since 1972, the Family Practice Center has offered a program in graduate medical education for residency training in family practice; and,

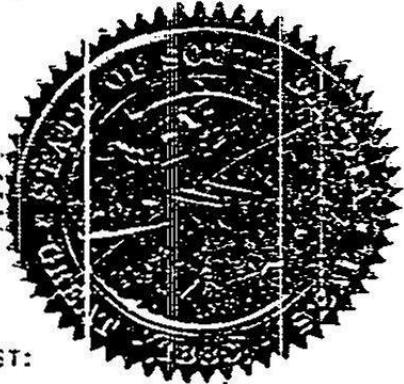

WHEREAS, The residency program provides high quality instruction and experience for residents in the family practice area; and,

WHEREAS, The residency program fosters better hospital, medical and health service to the citizens of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The residency program is an important component in the continuum of medical education and expands the knowledge and skills students receive during the undergraduate period of medical education; and,

WHEREAS, Some one hundred sixteen residents have successfully completed their family practice residency training through this program and approximately half of these physicians practice in South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the state, do hereby recognize the value of the quality program of graduate medical education and urge all South Dakotans to support the Family Practice Residency Program.

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
